

Shahabuddin M. Hossain Best Paper Award 2018

This is a call for nominations and submission of papers to be considered for the best paper by a young economist of Bangladesh origin. Eligible nominees should either be PhD students or have received their PhD no earlier than 2015. The research does not need to be on Bangladesh or in Development Economics field.

The award is named in the memory of Dr. Shahabuddin M. Hossain, who has served as the General Secretary and Vice-President of AEDSB. He worked towards development and poverty reduction as a development economist, a senior Economist at IMF, and as advisor to the Governor of Bangladesh Bank. He has made lasting contributions to the community of scholars working on economic development in Bangladesh.

Entries will be evaluated by a three-member panel, consisting of Shahe Emran, Fahad Khalil and Mushfiq Mobarak.

Please send entries to members of the panel at assa@aedsb.org by March 31, 2017.
